

REMOVES DOUBT OVER G. O. P. SUFFRAGE PLANK

Suffrage Leaders Here Are Jubilant
Over the Statement of Senator Borah.

Equal suffrage leaders in Washington are jubilant today over a telegram received from Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National American Woman's Suffrage Association, stating that all doubt as to whether the suffrage plank in the republican national platform constitutes an unqualified endorsement without limitations has been removed.

This confirmation came to her in a telegram from Senator William E. Borah of Idaho, as follows:

"Suffrage plank of republican platform is an unqualified endorsement of woman suffrage. It unmistakably favors the extension of suffrage to women, and favors it as a matter of justice. This is not subject to possible ambiguity. The only question left open is that of the method of securing it. The plank recognizes the right of each state to settle the question for itself, but it does not declare against the taking away of that right. It was my view at the time of the adoption of the amendment in committee, and is still my view, that upon the question of the federal amendment in platform was silent and neither rejected it nor endorsed it. (Signed) William E. Borah."

Mrs. Catt also sent out copies of the plank that is to be submitted to the democratic national convention and which she hopes to have adopted, as follows:

"Believing that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed, we acknowledge the right of women to participate in government and favor their enfranchisement."

PLEAD FOR D. C. ARMORY.

Chamber of Commerce Committee
Urges Action by Congress.

A subcommittee of the National Guard committee of the Washington Chamber of Commerce, headed by Winfield Jones, its chairman, and including Col. John McElroy, John F. Slaven and Capt. James F. Oyster, accompanied by Gen. H. Oden Lake, national commander of the Army and Navy Union, today urged Representative Frank Clark of Florida, chairman of the House public buildings and grounds committee, to include in the public buildings bill an appropriation of $1,750,000 for the proposed new armory for the National Guard of the District of Columbia.

Representative Clark said he would give careful consideration to the matter and he hoped the committee would take favorable action on the plea for a new armory.

Because the public buildings bill will carry appropriations of from twenty million to thirty million and there is considerable opposition in Congress to passage of any public buildings bill at this session, it is doubtful if the bill will contain the armory appropriation.

GIRL SCOUTS GET FLAG.

Patriotic Speeches Mark Presentation to Troop 23.

Brief patriotic speeches featured the exercises held last evening when Burnside Woman's Relief Corps presented a silk parade flag to Troop 23 of the Girl Scouts at the hall of Burnside Post, G. A. R. The presentation speech was delivered by Mrs. Mary M. North, who was one of the committee which made arrangements for the first flag day celebration in the District of Columbia. The response was made by Miss Adelaide Barker, captain of the troop.

Other speakers were Mrs. Anna S. Hamilton, president of Burnside Corps, and Mrs. L. J. Hart, past department president of the corps. After a formal salute to the flag the "scouts" took charge of the program and entertained those present, which included members of Burnside Post, G. A. R., Burnside W. R. C. and a number of visitors. Following inspection and roll call a musical program was given with Mrs. E. C. Barker at the piano. Various drills were executed by the scouts.

GIVEN "FAREWELL" DINNER.

Thomas Bones Guest of Friends on Eve of His Marriage.

Friends of Thomas Bones gave him a "farewell" dinner at the Columbia Country Club last night on the eve of his marriage to Mrs. Eloise Harden, which is to take place this evening at the Shoreham Hotel. The dinner program was given with Mrs. E. C. Barker at the piano. Various drills were executed by the scouts.

Following were the guests: Thomas Bones, Harry Wardman, Joseph N. Thompson, Howard Burns, John Green, James D. Hobbs, Irving Hobbs, Hubbard Quinton, Sanford Edlin, Ambrose Hilton, John D. Mattingly, Edward Stock, Clarence Dodge, Leo Nachman, J. H. Chaney, Albert Wilson, Joseph Hines, Joseph Keane and Albert M. Schneider.

3d Annual Department Managers' Sale!

This is the third year our Department Managers have had an opportunity to demonstrate their ability as good sellers as well as good buyers of merchandise in a sale ALL THEIR OWN.

The store is turned over to the buyers, as it were, who in turn write the ads, price the merchandise offered and in a word run the store for the period assigned to them. Of course, the rivalry is keen, as each tries to outdo the other in the way of attractive offerings that will bring the greatest number of customers.

With greatest preparedness in mind the buyers months ago began preparations for this sale event of the year—buying in large quantities while prices were normal—for their reputations were more at stake at this time than ever before. They are offering many things at retail prices in this sale at prices they would have to pay in the wholesale markets today. PREPAREDNESS—buying early in anticipation of this event—that's why.

The management, of course, insists that every statement be correct. When reductions are mentioned, they are bona fide. Com many things at retail prices in this sale at p
